TEN CENTS A WEEK

SECOND WEEK

Of the Miners' Strike Now Entered Upon.

BOTH SIDES ARE FIRM.

Strikers Greatly Encouraged by Their Large Number.

WEST VIRGINIA MINERS AT WORK.

Pittsburg, July 11.—Today marks the beginning of the second week of the coal miners' strike, and already it gives promise of being one of the greatest wage struggles in the history of this country. Eight days ago the coal operators in this district and the miners themselves little dreamed that within one short week such an era of general suspension could be wrought as now exists in the bituminous mining industry.

The success that has attended the movement has greatly elated the miners, and during the next few days every effort will be made to bring out the men in the few mines that are still working. This will be a difficult task, but they express confidence in their ability to make the suspension complete before the week is forty-eight hours old.

"This whole thing will result in a compromise," said another prominent operator. "The operators are in a position to stand it for some time, and I believe the miners are in about the same condition. It looks as if business will brighten up, and in that event the operators will be able to get better prices, and the condition of business and the condition of the miner will be simultaneously improved."

Just now the greatest obstacle in the way of success of the miner is the activity of the diggers in the West Virginia fields. They are working night and day and are getting ready to supply all the coal that is needed. They are repeating what they did three years ago when a general suspension was declared. At that time there were a number of operators in the mountain state that were on the verge of bankruptcy. The general suspension was declared, and there came a great demand for coal at prices that insured a big profit. The operators rallied around them a large number of men, whose friendship and support they have encouraged ever since. The operators profited by thousands and thousands of dollars. When the season was over and the strike was declared a failure, they balanced their books and found things on the proper side of their ledgers. They realized that they owed much of their profit to their miners, and rewarded them for it. On every succeeding pay day the faithful miners were paid bonuses in the shape of gold pieces, and naturally the best of feeling prevails among the employers and employees.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

The Cuban Question and Senator Harris' Successor.

Washington, July 12.—As soon as the general deficiency bill is out of the way an effort will be made in the Senate to again bring to the front the Cuban question. Should this be done there will be a debate of several days. Of course the Senate is aware of the fact that no matter how many Cuban resolutions it may pass they will not be considered in the House, for the reason that the speaker will insist that everything go over until December.

There is much speculation here in Tennessee circles over the appointment of a successor to the late Senator Harris. Were it not for the fact that Gov. "Bob" Taylor was a full-fledged candidate, he would unquestionably appoint Congressman Benton McMillin, who is also a pronounced candidate. An appointment of a Senator in a case like this one invariably gives strength to the candidacy of the appointed Senator when the time arrives for the Legislature to elect to fill the vacancy. And hence it is that Gov. Taylor is likely to overlook McMillin. The general opinion is that Gov. Taylor will appoint some friend who will step aside at the proper time and throw his influence to the Governor. It is hardly probable that an appointment will be made immediately.

The friends of the bankruptcy bill have abandoned all hope of receiving consideration for that measure during the extra session. The understanding is that the first thing the house will do when it meets in December will be to take up that measure and consider it under a special order reported from the Committee on rules.

Among pardons recently granted by the President were John Redmon, of Kentucky, sentenced for eighteen months for possessing counterfeit coin, and Dave Hunt, sentenced in Tennessee for five years for post-office robbery.

MARY ELLEN

Will Never Be Caught "Yellin'" for Silver Again.

Carthage, Mo., July 12.—Mrs. Mary Ellen Leese, who is here as a lecturer at the Chautauque Assembly, said in an interview: "The silver question is an issue of the past and will never again serve as the leading issue for the reform elements in politics. If Mr. Bryan is to make the silver question the dominant issue in the next campaign here is one woman who is against him. Socialism is the hope of the country, and in the next campaign the fight must be made for the industrial emancipation of the people."

REPUBLICAN CLUBS

Assembling at Detroit for Their National League's Convention.

Detroit, Mich., July 12. The hotel lobbies are crowded with the advance guard of the delegation to the convention of the National League of Republican Clubs, which commences tomorrow. The chief topic of interest among the delegates already on the field is the election of a president. The prominent candidates for president are: Marcus Pollasky, of Chicago; Col. George Stone, of San Francisco; L. J. Crawford, of Newport, Ky.; Edward H. B. Green, of Dallas, Texas, son of Hetty Green, and Lieut. Gov. Timothy E. Woodruff, of New York.

"LONDON IN 1900"

The Cry of the Christian Endeavorers Now at San Francisco.

San Francisco, July 12.—"London in 1900." That is to be the rallying cry of the Christian Endeavorers for the next three years. It is the ambition of President Clark and his millions of followers to show the Old World something of the strength of their organization. Nashville has already been chosen as the place of meeting in 1898, and at the annual meeting of officers Tuesday morning the selection of a convention city for 1899 will be discussed, but the question may not be settled then, for the offers of a number of places are to be considered.

TERRIBLE FATALITY.

Fearful Railroad Wreck Reported in Europe.

The Killed and Fatally Injured Said to Number One Hundred.

London, July 12.—A Copenhagen telegram reports a railroad wreck in which forty were killed and sixty more fatally injured.

CHAUNCEY DEPEW

Defines Bryanism and Its Cure in a London Interview.

London, July 10.—The daily "Graphic" publishes an interview with Chauncey M. Depew, in which he says: "Bryanism is only another name for discontent with existing conditions. For three years the American farmer has had no market for his produce of livestock. Miner and manufacturer have had tentative and spasmodic, but not regular, business, and labor has found no steady employment."

"This gave an opportunity for new men with new ideas to say that they had a patent remedy, a sort of financial cure-all, which would start the wheels of industry and give good markets and full employment. Bryanism represented this alleged cure and hope. It was defeated by a campaign of education and the promise of prosperity with a new administration and a protective tariff, and also stability in our currency. The disappearance of Bryanism in the year 1900 at the next presidential election depends upon the fulfillment of these promises. If we get the promised legislation and do have good times, Bryanism is dead. If we do not, then there will be such an increase of uneasiness and discontent as to sweep the country for Mr. Bryan or some experiment with financial and industrial theories."

PROGRESS OF THE STRIKE.

Claims That West Virginia Goes Out This Week.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 12.—There is great rejoicing at strikers' headquarters today over the progress that is claimed to have been made in West Virginia. The leaders claim that all West Virginia mines will be closed down this week and that the success of the great strike is now assured.

STRIKING SNAGS.

The Tariff Conference Having a Hard Time.

Washington, D. C., July 12.—The tariff conference are striking lots of snags in coming to an agreement on the tariff bill. Today's session will probably be prolonged all night.

Mystery Still Unsolved

Lexington, Ky., July 12.—The mystery surrounding the dynamite bomb which exploded at the Cincinnati Southern crossing with the street railway last Friday morning, killing six negro men and badly wounding Frazier Hart, (the thirteen-year-old son of ex-Representative Rolla K. Carl, of Flemingsburg, seems no nearer solution today than it did five minutes after the explosion. Superintendent W. J. Murphy, of the Cincinnati Southern road, does not think the bomb was placed where it was found for the purpose of injuring his road.

A MADMAN.

Jack Brigman Attempts to Kill His Brother-in-Law.

LIVES NEAR CLARK'S RIVER.

Chas. Taylor, the Relative, Came to the City and Filed Information As to Brigman's Condition.

HE WILL BE TRIED FOR LUNACY.

Charles Taylor, who resides in the Clark's River neighborhood, came to the city this afternoon and went before Judge Bishop, filing information that "Jack" Brigman, a well known resident of that vicinity, is violently insane.

Brigman's mental condition has been alarming for some time. He was deaf about a year ago, and it appears he has since grown despondent and indifferent.

Last night he arose and went to the home of his brother-in-law, Taylor, with a pistol, and calling him out attempted to shoot him. He lives on the Tom Reed farm, and Taylor resides three miles away. Brigman is said to be very dangerous, especially at times, and he will likely be arrested this afternoon and brought to the city to await trial tomorrow afternoon on a writ of lunacy inquiring before Judge Bishop at the court house.

SUFFERING AMONG MINERS.

Great Distress Reported in the Jellico District.

Jellico, Tenn., July 11.—There is great distress among the miners in this region, many of them having large families and not knowing where the next meal is coming from. Some of the miners have gardens, and they have been able to make the truck raised on these do them for the absolute necessities. The relief committee recently sent abroad to get help has returned and reported that they met with poor success. Committees are to be sent the East Tennessee districts in the hope that aid may be had while it is sorely needed. The miners and operators have had no meeting since May, and there does not seem to be the slightest prospect for an amicable adjustment of the wage question. The men at these mines have had little work for nearly two years and as a consequence they have nothing laid up for a rainy day.

AT THE SCENE OF HIS CRIME.

Gus Hite Shows the Detective Where He Hid His Wallet.

Clarksville, Tenn., July 12.—Gus Hite, who robbed a Southern Express car three miles north of here on the night of June 22, and was captured at Kansas City, was brought here yesterday to the scene of the robbery. He informed the detectives in whose charge he was where to stop the train and piloted them to the exact spot in a cliff about seven miles from the scene of the commission of the crime where he hid his wallet containing the express papers and where he camped two days. Great crowds followed the prisoner here, where he was guarded all day and taken back to Memphis tonight.

THE TARIFF BILL.

Steady Progress Being Made by the Conference.

Uncertainty As to When Their Final Report Will Be Made.

Washington, July 12.—The conference on the tariff bill held a four-hour session yesterday. The anxiety to reach a complete agreement as early as possible induced them to meet on the Sabbath, and tonight both the House and Senate conferences appear satisfied with the progress that has been made. Several hundred of the minor amendments have been agreed upon, many of them mere changes of phraseology and on a large majority of these the House conference naturally yielded. None of the real important problems in the bill, however, has as yet been solved. All of them have received more or less consideration, and there has been a free exchange of opinions.

There is the best of reasons for believing that several of the main points of contention will be compromised. This is especially believed to be true of lumber, hides and wool and possibly sugar, though on the latter the House conference are standing particularly firm for their schedule.

On the subject of reciprocity the drift of opinion seems to be in the direction of the senate substitute, but with certain of the house provisions; that is, that the list of articles which can be used as a basis for reciprocity treaties will be broadened, but that the senate provision requiring the ratification of the treaties will be discarded. Several of the eminent lawyers in both branches of congress question the constitutionality of the power conferred upon the President by the senate reciprocity provision. The stamp tax on bonds and stocks provided for in one of the senate amendments has not yet been accepted. The revenue afforded by it furnishes a strong argument for its acceptance in view of the heavy anticipatory authorizations, and there is talk of widening its scope so as to not only include a tax on actual transfers, but on all recorded sales. This necessity of revenue also furnishes a strong argument for the restoration of the house rates on imported tobacco.

It is impossible to estimate yet when a final agreement will be reached, and although various dates are given as to the length of time the bill will remain in conference, ranging from Tuesday to a week from tomorrow, one of the most influential of the conferees said tonight that all estimates were necessarily pure guess work.

Magistrate Suicides.

Hopkinsville, July 12.—Squire Peterman, one of the oldest magistrates in this county, committed suicide by shooting himself with a rifle yesterday. No cause is assigned for his terrible act.

WORKING FOR FUSION.

W. C. P. Breckinridge in Favor of Uniting With the Republicans.

Orndorff Will Probably Be Named on a Fusion Ticket.

Frankfort, Ky., July 12.—It is announced here today that Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge is working to bring about fusion at the state convention of Sound Money Democrats which meets in Louisville Wednesday. It is probable that Orndorff of Russellville, will be nominated for Clerk of the Court of Appeals on a fusion ticket. He will accept the nomination.

THE SULTAN FIRM.

Will Not Yield to the Advice of the Powers.

The Sultan Proposes to Increase the Force in Crete.

Constantinople, July 11.—Queen Victoria, Emperor William, Emperor Nicholas, President Faure and King Humbert have replied to the telegrams received by them from the Sultan, and all give advice similar to that sent by Emperor Francis Joseph. Emperor William says in substance that he regrets his inability to dissociate himself from the views held by the other Powers.

Replies to the circular of the Turkish government to the powers relative to the frontier question have also been received by the ambassadors. They all decline to admit the Turkish pretensions. The Porte has sent another circular to the powers, proposing that, in view of the disturbed condition existing in Crete, Turkey send reinforcements to the island. To this the powers have also replied, endeavoring to dissuade the Porte from such a step. This latest proposal on the part of the Turkish government is held to indicate that the Sultan does not intend to yield in regard to the frontier question.

A NEIGHBORHOOD ROW.

A Man Who Ought to Behave Himself.

Mrs. Hill, a widow of Clay street, complained at police headquarters this afternoon relative to the conduct of a neighbor who is said to be guilty of appearing at night in full view of his neighbors completely disheveled. Officer Barnhart once notified him that he must cease, but he appears he has resumed it. No warrants have thus far been issued.

All members of F. M. C. lodge are requested to meet in Quigley & Boone's office at 8 p. m. Business of importance.

It is said that President McKinley receives an average of sixty begging letters every day. The other day the total amount asked for was only $20,000.

It is estimated by the Treasury Department that Secretary Gage's proposition to tax refined sugar, to be produced from existing stocks of raw sugar, imported prior to the passage of the tariff bill, would yield over $14,000,000 of revenue within the next six or eight months.

The body of Sound Money Democrats who gather at Louisville in state convention on Wednesday, will be as representative a body of Kentuckians as ever assembled together.

The list of delegates appointed by the various county mass conventions Saturday contain the names of many men who have been leaders of Kentucky Democracy in the good old days before the party went off after strange gods.

Among those delegates will be found Kentucky's ablest lawyers, her most prominent bankers and her foremost business men. That such a body can fail to exert a powerful influence over Kentucky's political future is absurd.

That nondescript sheet printed at Frankfort, called the "Capital" is a corker. It claims to be a Republican paper, but is doing the Republican party about as much good as the Louisville "Despatch," which has sixteen spasms every day.

The "Capital" is edited in bitterness and gall. Its mission seems to be to abuse those with whom it does not agree and to vent its venomous spite upon any prominent Republican leader who incurs its displeasure.

It is rumored that the "Capital" is the organ of a prominent state official; but we don't believe that. It is simply an example of total depravity; conceived in sin and born in iniquity.

The voting on the Dingley Tariff bill in both House and Senate has brought out some interesting and significant facts, some Democrats and even a few Populists having joined with the Republicans in support of a Protective measure.

This evidence that the principle of Protection has grown broader than party lines. But the most significant fact is that nearly all of these non-Republican votes for Protection came from the South.

The day was when making a forecast of election returns the votes of the "solid South" were assigned without discussion to the party of free trade.

But that day has gone never to return. The "solid South" is broken and the break is greater than that which is measured by party lines.

Not only has the party whose watchword is Protection more Southern members in Congress than ever before, except at the time immediately following the Civil War, but the number of their votes does not measure even the whole strength of Protection sentiment in the South.

The growth of manufactures in the South and the opening up of Southern resources is swinging the South surely and not slowly into the Protection column.

It is quite conceivable that in the not far distant future we will have again a "solid South"—a South solid for the American system of protection.

It might be a good idea for our two local Democratic contemporaries who are so assiduously reporting alleged secret caucuses of Republicans, if they would mention names and places. There is nothing wrong or objectionable for Republicans to come together and to discuss candidates or ways and means by which to secure the nomination of some special favorite. It is a matter of great importance that the Republicans nominate their best man for mayor. We believe that if the right man is nominated he can be elected. The Republicans never had a better opportunity than this fall. We hope that many more "secret" caucuses will be held and that such an interest will be aroused that, when July 21st comes, every Republican in Paducah will be on hand and a free and full expression of Republican preferences will be obtained. The majority candidate of the Republicans should be nominated by no clique. The choice of a majority of the Republican voters should be the nominee, and when the nominee is selected, let every Republican take off his coat and go to work—and see that the Republican is elected.

BIMETALLISM.

Walcott's Commission Doing Good Work in Europe.

France Will Join Us—England to be the Next Point of Attack—Republican Pledges Being Redeemed.

A recent cable dispatch from London to the New York "Tribune" has the following good news concerning the progress that is being made by the special commission appointed by President McKinley to initiate negotiations that would lead to a settlement of the silver question on an international basis, or with the aid of the great commercial nations of Europe.

When the Republican party put the following clause into its national platform it uttered no idle words:

We are unalterably opposed to every measure calculated to debase our currency or impair the credit of our country. We are, therefore, opposed to the free coinage of silver, except by international agreement with the leading commercial nations of the world, which we pledge ourselves to promote; and until such agreement can be obtained, the existing gold standard must be preserved.

The pledge therein contained President McKinley is endeavoring to carry out. He appointed a commission of three of the ablest and most prominent bimetallists to secure the co-operation of European nations. What that commission is doing can be seen from the following dispatch:

The three special envoys empowered by the United States to negotiate with European powers for a settlement of the silver question on international lines will have two embassies behind them in place of one. They produced so good an impression upon the French government during their stay in Paris that the French Embassy in London has been instructed to co-operate with the American Embassy in such conferences and negotiations as may be conducted with the British government.

It has been known that M. Melie and the French Ministry were outspoken in expressing their sympathy for the objects of their mission and in promising that their concurrence would not be wanting for the triumph of the cause of rational bimetallism on international lines.

It has not been suspected that the French government would be prepared to lend diplomatic support to the movement of the McKinley administration in favor of bimetallism.

It is next to useless that these envoys in their negotiations with the foreign office and the Chancellor of the Exchequer will have the hearty co-operation of the French and American Embassies.

Messrs. Walcott, Stevenson and Paine are not here on an errand of political adventure. They are successful negotiators who have carried their main point in Paris, and have insisted not only the good will, but also the active co-operation and diplomatic support of the French government in their London campaign.

Ambassador Hay has been arduously at work on the same lines ever since his arrival in London, and his prestige and influence are now of the greatest possible service in facilitating the work of the envoys, who are likely to remain here several weeks before returning to Paris.

What was originally an effort of the part of the McKinley administration to carry out the pledges of the Republican platform respecting bimetallism, has become already a joint movement on the part of the United States and France to bring about a settlement of the monetary question through the action of a new conference.

France is the natural ally of the United States in this movement, because she has greater interest than any other European state in bimetallism. The Bank of France contains in its vaults over $225,000,000 in silver which has been withdrawn from circulation.

Both governments have a common interest in obtaining an adjustment of this monetary question which has caused a disturbance throughout the commercial world, and they are naturally supporting each other in the negotiations now opening in London.

The commission will also meet a warmer reception in England than was anticipated at first, and it is quite probable that that nation will join the movement. A dispatch from London quotes the "National Review" as saying that it is able to announce that "England's reply will be that the government is willing to reopen India mints and make a further substantial contribution to the rehabilitation of silver by extending its use in England, by increasing the legal tender of silver, making silver the basis of notes, empowering the Bank of England to use its silver reserve, and that material assistance and strong moral support will be given to the object which the United States and France have in view.

PUBLIC SCHOOL FUND. May Be Greatly Reduced by a Decision of Court.

Right in the wake of the late decision of the court of Appeals in the Building and Loan Association case, comes the possibility of another decision which will have a wide spread influence in the state. This time it is the public school fund that is threatened. We were bound to have a new constitution and we got it. But from the recent decisions of the court of appeals it is evident that we got a little more than we bargained for. That document seems to be an inexhaustible mine for "divisions" by our court of appeals.

A recent despatch from Frankfort says: Things look blue for this year's Kentucky school fund. It has been discovered that the fund is bound to be not only greatly reduced, but may be nearly wiped out should the courts decide that it must at once pay back all the money it has received and not be entitled to the past three or four years. Of the big taxes paid to the banks during the last year they have paid seventy-five cents to state in lieu of all other taxes, the law has been so construed that the school fund has received nearly half.

The courts have now decided that the banks should have paid only forty-two and a half cents to the state the past four years, and only the regular rate of fifty-two and a half cents this year. This cuts in half the amount that goes from the bank taxes to the school fund for this year, and as the state is paying back the rebate due the banks for the past several years, the auditor thinks the school fund will have to stand its share of the rebate, and this share is nearly or quite half of all that will have to be returned.

The Auditor and State Superintendent decided last year that the school fund would have to make up an "overdrawn" or deficit, for the preceding year before it could be divided up into per capita, which turned out to be $2.75, or ten cents more than it had been before for many years. If they now decide that the fund must pay its share of all the rebate of this year's fund, this last reduction may be as a drop in the bucket, and the per capita for the year may be small enough to curtail the school term in nearly every rural district in the state. Neither the Auditor nor Superintendent of Public Instruction is ready to talk about the matter. They will not tell till they get all the figures in and have some legal advice on the subject.

HARD ON DEBS. Eugene Debs declares free silver is dead and that henceforth he will advocate state socialism. If Debs had made this announcement before the last election the result might have been different. The Debses and Doodlebugs and other hairbrained theorists injured the cause of silver by their advocacy of it. —[Memphis Commercial-Appal.]

Senator Harris' Estimate of Bryan. "D—n him! He is nothing but a $2,500 man!" That's what Harris called William J. Bryan, while the preliminary work of the Chicago convention was being done, and some one suggested the possibility of Bryan's nomination. Harris, the chairman of the Silver Committee of the United States, who had tolled and schemed with Teller, Jones, Stewart and Dubois for months before the convention, dismissed such a suggestion with an oath and a wave of the hand. But Bryan was nominated, and Isham G. Harris, disgusted and disappointed, left Chicago, and remained in Memphis during the entire campaign. He neither spoke nor wrote one word in defense of the silver cause. He knew Bryan was not the man for leading the silver forces, and he knew he would be defeated.

Silver Service for the Kentucky. Senator Deboe and Representatives Berry, Colson and Evans, Judge Thomas and Col. Stoll have been designated by their fellow-citizens of Kentucky as a committee to select designs and determine upon the character of the silver service to be given by the state of Kentucky to its namesake, the United States battleship, Kentucky, which is expected to go into commission July 1, 1899. The movement to raise a suitable fund for this service has been begun by the Ladies League Club, of Newport, Ky., and the gift to the battleship is to be made a state affair, the expectation being that the service will be the finest given to any vessel in the navy. Each school child in the state has been requested to contribute a penny and each adult ten cents. If this scheme is carried out a fund will be secured from the old commonwealth sufficient to purchase a magnificent tribute. —[Washington Dispatch to New York Tribune.]

NEWS NOTES.

Nine ice dealers of Nashville have been indicted for conspiring to put up the price of ice.

Mrs. Lillian Nordica, the prima donna, has suffered a relapse and her condition is grave.

Louisville has contributed thirteen to the list of deaths from heat during the past twelve days.

C. W. Erdman's nomination to be consul at Furth, in Bavaria, will go to the Senate today.

An Associated Press summary shows that 325 deaths from heat were reported during the past week.

The children's musical carnival at the Tennessee Centennial exposition Saturday was such a decided success that it will be repeated. It has been the brightest feature of the exposition.

The note of the Powers to the Turkish government demanding that peace negotiations be hastened is couched in severe terms, and insists that the Powers must be allowed to decide the frontier between Greece and Turkey.

Impressive funeral services over the remains of the late Isham G. Harris were held in the senate chamber Saturday attended by the President and cabinet members of the diplomatic corps. Saturday night the remains were started to Nashville where they will lie in state today.

The state convention of National Democrats, which will be held in Louisville next Wednesday, will be remarkable for including among its delegates, not only many men of national reputation as Democratic leaders, but a large number of others whom the people of Kentucky have learned to look upon as representatives of the purest Democracy and the best citizenship. Mass conventions were held throughout the state Saturday. Most of them were well attended and all of them were earnest and enthusiastic gatherings. Among the delegates chosen were: John G. Carlisle, Geo. S. B. Buckner, James A. McKim, W. C. P. Brockridge, William Lindsay, J. R. Hunt, C. J. Helm, R. P. Jacobs, J. Q. Ward and a long list of others whose names are equally synonymous with genuine Democracy. The sentiment was largely against fusion with the Republicans on a candidate for clerk of the court of appeals.

Some Sensible Words. "It is in such times as these that demagogues thrive; it is in just such times that they should be shunned. They can lead men astray, but they cannot correct a single real or imaginary grievance under which men suffer. There is too much demagogism abroad in the land; there is too much false doctrine taught pertaining to governmental functions; there is too much encouragement of the spirit of socialism and all that it implies, including communistic and chimerical schemes for a 'social democracy,' so called; there is too much tolerance of disrespect for courts and constituted authorities; there is too much clamor for class legislation; there is too much inculcation of the idea that men can become rich without effort—by the mere fiat of the government instead of earning wealth in the good old-fashioned way; and there is too much attention paid to cranks, blatherers, and political adventurers, entitled to no consideration, but who seem to have obtained the public ear, and are seeking to pull down the pillars of society." —David Bennett Hill.

Not Exactly an Objection.

He had some doubts as to his standing with the old man. "Does your father object to my calling?" he asked.

"Well, not exactly," she answered. "He had still further doubts about the subject, but he resolved to know the worst."

"What do you mean by 'not exactly'?" he demanded. "Well, he says he supposes he ought to be able to stand it if I can," she replied.

He no longer had any doubts, but he didn't feel particularly good about it just the same.—Chicago Post.

His Only Objection. "I love to hear you talk, my dear," said Mr. Bickers to his wife, when she paused to take breath at the end of the second column of a certain lecture, "but your volubility is really a reflection on my wisdom."

"How so?" "Because a word to the wise is sufficient." —Democrat's Magazine.

A Solemn Oath. Amelia—Swear not by the moon, the inconsistent moon. Augustus—Then what shall I swear by?

Amelia—Swear by that which you hold invaluable; something that you cannot live without. Augustus—Then, Amelia, I love you! I swear it by my bicycle.—Tit-Bits.

A Vindication. "I don't understand why you dislike Herbert so," said Nabel to her father. "I don't think he has any ideas of finance."

"I am sure you wrong him. He is devoted to it. He stopped right in the middle of his proposal to me to ask how your business was getting along." —Washington Star.

Had Tricked Politics. Great Statesman (to married daughter)—My dear, your husband will never amount to anything if you don't spur him on. Why don't you persuade him to go into politics?

Daughter—But, pa, he has tried, and he can't stand it. The whisky makes him sick.—N. Y. Weekly.

The Dairy Farm Pasture. The pasture is the sheet anchor on the dairy farm. Too much care cannot be given it. No satisfactory substitute has been discovered, nor is it in the least degree probable that any will be. Still feeding is very well for beef cattle to be put on, but it is slow death to the beef cow. Soiling is an invaluable ally to the pasture, but soiling can never be made a satisfactory substitute. A given number of acres divided into two or more pastures will give better results than if left in one inclosure. The grass will be more evenly cropped, therefore more uniform in quantity and quality, and fewer weeds will grow. By changing the cows regularly from pasture to pasture, a constant supply of fresh grass may be secured throughout the whole season.—Rural World.

Stole Two Suits of Clothes and Two Gold Watches.

The residence of Dr. W. H. Sanders, of Arcadia, was entered by thieves last night and two suits of clothes and two fine gold watches were stolen.

The marauder gained entrance through a window without much difficulty, and left no clew to his identity. Marshal Collins was notified of the burglary this morning.

The burglar evidently came prepared for trouble. He left leaning against a chair a club, which was picked up in the yard.

Dr. Sanders and family have slept with the windows and doors open during the summer for the past thirteen years, and it was the first time a burglary had been committed during that time.

COUNTY WHITE CAPPERS.

They Order Witnesses Against Robt. McGill to Leave.

And Give Them Until August 1st to Do It.

There was some excitement near Ragland, in the county, a few days ago, according to reports, over the action of some of the McGill faction in sending a note to some of the witnesses against the defendant in the celebrated wife murder case to leave the county by August 1st, or else submit to a "white capping." It is said that there is much feeling in the neighborhood over the case, and sympathy is largely with McGill.

He shot his wife, as will no doubt be remembered, several months ago, and she died from the wounds. He has been in jail ever since charged with murder, no bail being allowed. It is not thought the witnesses will leave the county, as ordered to do.

Dolar was employed by Mrs. Phil Ashoff, at Third and Monroe streets, where through sympathy he was given a home. He ran away and went in swimming Saturday, and furnished the first drowning of the season.

Although the water was quite shallow where the drowning occurred, the search for the body has thus far been unsuccessful.

now proposes to increase the Turkish force in Crete, which is taken to mean that the Sultan does not intend to yield his position, or that he is attempting bluff.

The coal miners are greatly elated over the success of their strike in the Pittsburgh district. The Pittsburgh operators say they are in a hurry to adjust matters, as they have stocks on hand which they will have an opportunity to dispose of. The greatest obstacle to the ultimate success of the strike is the activity of the West Virginia miners, who are working night and day, getting ready to supply the market when the strike brings a pinch.
